

News from Justlife a Frontline Network Partner

Coronavirus (COVID-19) email update (31st March)

This is our 3rd update and, again, we hope that everyone and their services are doing ok.

Below is some more information and resources that we hope you find useful.

As we mentioned previously, we will aim to provide a quick update every week.

If you have any updates from your service that you would like us to share please feel free to email: kate@justlife.org.uk

The "C-19 Frontline Worker Support Forum" is a space dedicated to sharing frontline worker information, guidance and solutions relating to COVID-19.

Homeless Link Resources and Information

Online Network:

COVID-19 Homelessness Response Online

Network gives homelessness services a forum to share how they are responding to the COVID-19 crisis locally, enabling others to learn from their experiences and helping to co-create effective responses. Homeless Link members have been sent invitation to join the network.

Non-members can also join - please request access from this webpage. Once you are logged in, request to join the group and permission will be given automatically.

Note that this is not a moderated forum but a space to exchange information and learn from each other. Please join in as it will be an invaluable source of information and practice sharing.

Homeless Link are also working on creating smaller forums to replicate their Communities of Practice but this will take a bit longer.

Webinar:

Homeless Link are broadcasting weekly webinars 3pm Wednesdays, open to all, providing an overview of current responses and emerging practice. Booking opens here on Mondays.

Click here for a link to last week's webinar.
